

July 2024

Hello Caitlin,

Summer has arrived! This week will be a busy one at Casco Bay Lines. We are sharing some information regarding our freight operations to help you prepare. We also have some exciting news about our new General Manager and important information related to the 2024 Board of Directors elections.

We hope everyone has a safe and happy Fourth of July!

Fourth of July Holiday Reminders

Traditionally, the Fourth of July weekend is one of our busiest weekends of the year. While there is no holiday schedule, we do ask that you arrive as early as possible, especially if you are shipping freight. For freight shipments, we will give priority to groceries, personal items and island store/restaurant items. Freight such as building supplies, furniture and appliances will be shipped based on availability and, if possible, shouldn't be sent to CBL until after the holiday. If you have any freight questions, please call the freight department at 207-774-7871 x116.
